Neighbourhood Plan Progress

Reserved Land

- The landowner is preparing revised possible layouts to accommodate all the competing demands on the site
- The Steering Group is seeking written statements to produce the necessary evidence for the extension of the time frame for development of the land in conformity with the original NDP policy

Communications

I-Next, is in the process of finalising the details of the Neighbourhood Plan “micro” site which will be complimentary to the parish council website.

Longer term new Neighbourhood Plan

- The process of appointing consultants to help with Community Engagement is in progress with a target date of April 30th for completion of the assignment.
- The Steering Group continues to wait for further Government decisions on new planning policies. Without such guidance there is a need to tread cautiously so as not to undertake abortive work.
- We are awaiting advice as to whether there might be an energy capacity study being carried out by PC or whether it is something which we can offer within the scope of the NDP. We are also trying to link up with local interest groups to tie areas of interest together a little more
