

Public Sector Deposit Fund

Investment objective

The fund aims to maximise current income consistent with the preservation of principal and liquidity.

The fund is a diversified portfolio of high-quality, sterling-denominated money market deposits and other instruments. All investments at the time of purchase will have the highest short-term credit rating or an equivalent, strong long-term rating. The fund is actively managed, which means the authorised corporate director, as investment manager, uses their discretion to pick investments, in pursuit of the investment objective.

The weighted average maturity of the investments will not exceed 60 days. The fund will not invest in derivatives or other collective investment schemes.

Sustainability approach

We believe that the primary role of sustainable investment is to drive positive change and this is best achieved by pushing companies to do more to address the major challenges facing us today. The fund is managed in line with our sustainability approach for cash funds.

The FCA has introduced sustainable investment labels to help investors find products that have a specific sustainability goal. This product does not have a UK sustainable investment label because it does not have a sustainability goal.

Market update

On 18 September, the Monetary Policy Committee (MPC) voted to maintain the Official Bank Rate (OBR) at 4% with 2 members voting for a further cut. Comments from the committee suggest that they remain open to further cuts following the existing "gradual and careful" rate however the recent above expectations increase in inflation is causing some concerns amongst members who may opt for a delay in further cuts.

August's inflation figures, although almost double the 2% target were in line with expectations and headline CPI remains at 3.8%. Whilst food inflation (5.1%) and goods inflation (2.7%) crept upwards, the recently stickier core inflation (3.6%) and services inflation (4.7%) fell as summer seasonal effects began to reverse. The heightened inflation over the summer months, although expected, did force Governor Bailey to accept that "there is now considerably more doubt about when and how quickly further steps can be made".

The MPC have two more meetings in 2025 with 6 November the next meeting date. By this point, the September inflation figures, long since forecast to be the peak of the current bout of inflation, will be known. Most expect this vote to be a hold with the potential for more dissenting members as the committee waits to confirm that the disinflation process has restarted.

This document is a financial promotion and is for information only. It does not provide financial, investment or other professional advice. To make sure you understand whether our product is suitable for you, please read the key investor information document and prospectus and consider the risk factors identified in those documents.

CCLA strongly recommend you get independent professional advice before investing. Under the UK money market funds regulation, the Public Sector Deposit Fund is a short-term low volatility net asset value money market fund. You should note that purchasing shares in the fund is not the same as making a deposit with a bank or other deposit taking body and is not a guaranteed investment.

Although it is intended to maintain a constant net asset value (where £1 invested in the fund remains equal to £1 in value in the fund), there can be no assurance that it will be maintained. The value of the fund may be affected by interest rate changes. The fund does not rely on external support for guaranteeing the liquidity of the fund or stabilising the net asset value per share. The risk of loss of principal is borne by the shareholder. Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future results. The value of investments and the income from them may fall as well as rise. You may not get back the amount you originally invested and may lose money.

Any forward-looking statements are based on our current opinions, expectations and projections. We may not update or amend these. Actual results could be significantly different than expected.
